The screenshot shows the Mailbot interface. On the left, a sidebar titled 'Conversations' lists a conversation with 'Dupont Jean' (Assurance Quesse, Demande prêt véhicule, 6 minutes). The main area shows the email content: 'Demande prêt véhicule' from Jean Dupont to Jean Dupont. Below the email, a 'Suggestion de réponse automatique (Powered by DialOnce):' is displayed, starting with 'Bonjour Monsieur Dupont,' and providing information about a vehicle loan extension. The interface includes various icons for actions like 'Ignorer' and 'Envoyer'.

The screenshot shows the automated response generated by the Mailbot. It includes a greeting 'Bonjour Monsieur Dupont,' and a detailed explanation of the vehicle loan extension. A red box highlights the question 'Est-ce que le contrat de Monsieur Dupont couvre le prêt de véhicule ?'. The response states that the contract does not cover it and provides a link to the insurance contract: 'Contrat Abeille Assurance - 123456789 Jean Dupont'.
