Biomek Automated Workstation Stations and methods are not intended or validated for use in the diagnosis of disease or other conditions. In some cases, method data was generated on pre-production automated workstations. RNAAdvance Viral XP is listed as an extraction method for use with the Centers for Disease Control's EUA-authorized COVID-19 test referenced in FDA's FAQ on testing for SARS-CoV-2. Other than this designation, RNAAdvance Viral XP is for research use, and not intended for diagnostic purposes.

Genomic Reagents are labeled "For Research Use Only. Not for use in diagnostic procedures."
